

INVESTOR RELATIONS PROGRAMS

The Investor Relations Department primarily facilitates the constant engagement of the company with its shareholders by providing truthful and timely information to its shareholders and even to the public in general. It has an established and maintained investor relations program that will keep the stockholders informed of any important developments in the corporation.

The Investor Relations Department's manner of constant engagement to the shareholders is by means of disclosures to the Company Website, Philippine Stock Exchange, Press Releases, Conferences, Annual Reports, Shareholders Meetings and all other disclosures as may be required.

The Chief Investment Officer oversees the Investors Relations Department and all its engagement with shareholders and potential investors.

This is inline with the company's core values – which is to uphold the trust and confidence of the company's investors through transparency and prudent management of resources.
